Unless otherwise agreed with Cycling UK, Cycling UK cannot pay the Grant funding to a third party, other person or organisation.

Activities

Organisations who are providing cycling activities on a regular basis, as their main business or as a primary income, must have a public liability insurance policy and be able to provide Cycling UK with a valid copy of the policy when requested. The validity of the policy must be at least until the Grant Period ends on 31 October 2022. If the policy expires within the delivery period it is expected that deliver partners will provide a renewed copy of their policy. The policy holder must be identified in the insurance policy as an organisation eligible to carry out cycle repairs and maintenance.

If your organisation is not providing cycling activities on a regular basis, as a main business or for the primary income, Cycling UK has arranged liability insurance for Activity Providers organising one-off special events which are part of the Big Bike Revival programme, Bike Week and the Women's Festival of Cycling. A summary of the insurance provided for Big Bike Revival events is detailed in the Cycling UK Guidance note 5 - Special Events Insurance on the Cycling UK website.

Organisations who are providing activities on a regular basis, as a main activity or primary income, and have a public liability insurance in place, cannot hold Cycling UK liable for, including but not limited to, incidents, accidents, harm, damages, additional costs or any consequences, whether direct or indirect, that have come about through participating as a partner to deliver the programme.

Publicity

Participating organisations must agree to use and promote the Big Bike Revival programme and Cycling UK at all events, in all pre-event promotions and across all media advertising, whether in print, virtual or audio formats, through utilising all materials provided from or downloadable or posted resources.

Policies and Procedures

Cycling UK may ask to see a copy or copies of relevant policies and procedures such as but not limited to, safeguarding policy, data protection policy, risk assessments, job sheets and grant expenditure receipts.

Discrimination

Both parties agree that neither shall unlawfully discriminate on the grounds of gender, race, disability, age, sexual orientation or religion and belief when engaged in any of the activities detailed under this agreement.

Incident reporting

If an incident or accident occurs at one of your Big Bike Revival events, the participating organisation is responsible to report this to Cycling UK as soon as possible. Please use the incident form and procedure published on our webpages, contact your local Cycling Development Officer or the Big Bike Revival for help.
