Runs list:

The Thursday rides continue to be popular, often attracting up to about 25 riders at a time. We will try again to arrange a visit to the Budleigh Cricket Club's new location in the near future.

As ever, we need more leaders to run the Sunday B rides. The A rides are somewhat shorter than usual at the present, but will most likely become a little longer once we get into the spring and summer months

Finance:

The current balance on the club account is £4,044. Glenis has completed the audit of the current year and will now be standing down. The committee is grateful to Glenis for her contribution as the Honorary Auditor in recent years. Richard Eales has agreed to be nominated for this role at the forthcoming AGM.

AGM:

The 2024 AGM will be held on Wednesday 17th April at 7.30pm at St Thomas Church Hall. Invitations were recently emailed to the membership and the agenda along with nominations received so far will shortly be posted to the club's website.

Speakers at the AGM have been confirmed as:

Liz Holloway, Principal Transport Planner at Devon County Council, who will speak about Devon County Council's Capital Programme for Cycling Projects, and Julie Weeks, who will speak about her four-week solo ride through France and Spain last year.

First Aid training:

We remain hopeful that a course can be arranged for later this year. Ian G will research a few options as to course providers and report back to the committee at the next meeting.

Bike Maintenance:

Paul E and Chris B will shortly finalise a date for the next course, probably in late May or early June. An email invitation will be sent to active riders. In this connection, Paul E and Ian G will review the Exeter section of the Cycling UK database to ensure that active riders are correctly flagged.

AOB:

Exeter CTC has been approached by Mike Walton of the Exeter Cycle Campaign about joining a coalition of like-minded parties to add support and weight to active travel objectives. Paul Ewings will attend an initial exploratory meeting of interested parties and report back.
